

Pacific Coast Christian School > Child Protection Home Page > Child Protection - Working with Children Checks

CompliSpace Staff Sign In

updated

Child Protection - Working with Children Checks

Working with Children Checks - Source of Obligation

The Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 (NSW) (the Act) and the Child Protection (Working with Children) Regulation 2013 (NSW) (the Regulation) aim to protect children from harm by providing a high standard of compulsory national criminal history checking for people wishing to do paid, unpaid or volunteer child-related work in NSW. These background checks are referred to as Working with Children Checks (WWC Checks).

It is an offence for a worker to engage in child-related work without a valid WWC Check.

It is an offence for the School to commence employing or continue to employ a worker in child-related work if the School knows or has reasonable cause to believe that:

- the worker is not the holder of a WWC Check Clearance that authorises that work and that there is no current application by the worker to the Children's Guardian for a clearance of a class applicable to that work, or
- the worker is subject to an interim bar.

It is also an offence for the School to commence employing or continue to employ a worker in child-related work unless the School has obtained and verified the worker's relevant details and made a record of those relevant details.

Pacific Coast Christian School, our staff, volunteers and others have a number of responsibilities and obligations under the Act and the Regulation which are outlined in this policy.

Who Needs a WWC Check?

Subject to the exemptions referred to below, any worker who engages in child-related work that involves:

- direct contact (physical or face to face) with a child or children (aged under 18),
- which contact is a usual part of and more than incidental to the work, must have a WWC Check in order to work at the School.

Definition of Worker

A worker means any person who is engaged in work, as:

- an employee
- a self-employed person
- a contractor or subcontractor
- a volunteer
- a person undertaking practical training as part of an educational or vocational course (other than as a school student undertaking work experience), or
- a minister, priest, rabbi, mufti or other like religious leader, or spiritual officer of a religion, or other member of a religious organisation.

What is Child-Related Work?

Under the Act and Regulation, work for, or in connection with, any of the following is child-related work if the work involves direct contact by the worker with a child or children and that contact is a usual part of and more than incidental to the work:

- mentoring and counselling services for children
- direct provision of child health services
- clubs, associations, movements, societies or other bodies (including bodies of a cultural, recreational or sporting nature) providing programs or services for children
- education and care services, child care centres, nanny services and other child care
- schools or other educational institutions
- sporting, cultural or other entertainment venues used primarily by children and entertainment services for children
- justice services such as detention centres
- any religious organisation where children form part of the congregation
- private coaching or tuition to children
- boarding houses or other residential services for children and overnight camps for children
- transport services especially for children, including School bus services and taxi services for children with a disability and supervision of School road crossings.

Child-related work also includes:

- a cleaner providing cleaning services at the School, even though they might not have direct contact with children
- a worker providing ongoing, counselling, mentoring or distance education using any form of communication that does not primarily involve direct contact (physical or face-to-face contact).

What is Not Child-Related Work?

Under the Regulation, the following types of work are not considered to be child-related, even though they involve direct contact with children:

- work as a referee, umpire, linesperson, other sporting official or grounds person is not child-related work, provided that the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods without other adults being present; and
- providing food or equipment at or for a sporting, cultural or other entertainment venue or providing a venue.

What is 'Direct Contact'?

Under the Act, direct contact with children means:

- physical contact, or
- face-to-face contact.

The Regulation may provide for circumstances in which direct contact by a worker with a child or children is 'taken to be a usual part of and more than incidental to' a worker's work. However it does not currently do so.

Key Exemptions

People engaged in the following types of work are not required, by law, to have a WWC Check:

- administrative, clerical or maintenance work, or other ancillary work, that does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods, other than School cleaners
- work with minimal direct contact or unsupervised contact with children, done for no more than five days in a calendar year
- volunteering by a parent or close relative in the following areas, except where the work involves providing mentoring services as part of a formal mentoring program, providing personal care services to children with disabilities, or attending an overnight camp for children:
  - of a child in activities for the child's school, early education service or other educational institution
  - with a team, program or other activity in which their child usually participates or is a team member
- a visiting speaker, adjudicator, performer, assessor or other similar visitor at a school or other place where child-related work is carried out if the work of the person at that place is for a one-off occasion and is carried out in the presence of one or more other adults
- work by an interstate visitor:
  - in a one-off event such as a jamboree, sporting or religious event or tour, if the event is the only child-related work carried out by the worker in NSW in that calendar year and the period of work does not exceed 30 days
  - who holds an interstate working with children check, or is exempt from the requirement to have such a check in his or her home jurisdiction, whose child related work in NSW is for no more than 30 days in any calendar year
- people under the age of 18.

How to Apply for a WWC Check?

A worker who engages in child related work is responsible for applying for his or her own WWC Check. An employer cannot apply on behalf of a worker.

To apply for a WWC Check, or to renew your clearance, visit the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian website and follow the prompts to either apply, renew or update your details.

Pacific Coast Christian School does not reimburse this fee for staff.

What is Checked?

The WWC Check first involves identity verification in person at a NSW Service Centre.

The Office of the NSW Children's Guardian then obtains applicants' national criminal histories and other information, including:

- convictions (including convictions that have been spent, quashed or set aside or for which a pardon has been granted)
- charges (whether or not heard, proven, dismissed, withdrawn or discharged)
- juvenile records
- findings of misconduct (e.g. sexual misconduct or serious physical assault of a child) by a government agency or other reporting body
- notifications relating to Reportable Conduct made to the NSW Children's Guardian.

Reporting bodies that must report findings of misconduct to the NSW Children's Guardian, to enable it to consider the findings as part of the WWC Check, include:

- registration or other licensing authorities constituted under an Act
- employer or professional or other bodies that supervise the conduct of an employee and that are prescribed by the regulations
- religious organisations, such as the Catholic Church and its associated organisations
- members of the Association of Independent Schools.

Depending on the outcome of these searches, there may need to be further assessment.

If a Police record or workplace misconduct record is found, then every record will be reviewed. This process can take up to a few months.

Notice of Intent to Bar and Risk Assessments

The Children's Guardian may issue a Notice of Intent to Bar (if certain offences are found that automatically disqualify someone from a WWC Check) or it may conduct a risk assessment if the check reveals any offences that are listed in Schedule 1 of the Act. A risk assessment will also occur if a Reportable Conduct finding of a sexual offence, sexual misconduct (including grooming) or any serious physical assault of a child is made, or the NSW Children's Guardian considers there are other circumstances relevant to the safety of children.

Where a bar is being considered, either as a result of automatically disqualifying offences or as a result of the risk assessment, the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian will call and write to the applicant to inform them of the proposed decision. Applicants will be invited to submit information to support their application and the Office of the Children's Guardian will take this information into account when making their final decision.

Interim Bar

A Notice of Intent to Bar will usually include an Interim Bar, which prevents the person from working with children unless and until he or she has been cleared.

Interim Bars may also be issued when an applicant for a WWC Check is subject to a risk assessment.

Applicants subject to an Interim Bar must not engage in any child-related work while awaiting the results of their risk assessment.

Outcome of the WWC Check

There are two key results for a WWC Check – a clearance to work with children or a bar against working with children. However, other results may be displayed when the School conducts the online verification process.

Clearance

Where the outcome is a clearance, the applicant will be provided with a WWC Check number that must be provided to the School. The WWC Check is valid for five years and may be used for any child-related work (paid or voluntary) in NSW. Cleared applicants will be subjected to ongoing monitoring for relevant new records which could lead to a bar and the clearance being revoked before the five year expiry date.

However, due to the COVID-19 Legislation Amendment (Emergency Measures) Act 2020 (NSW) the five year clearance period can be extended at the discretion of the NSW Children's Guardian.

Bar Against Working with Children

If the outcome is a bar, applicants must not engage in any child-related work. The barred applicant will receive a letter from the Office of the Children's Guardian notifying them of the decision and an explanation of the appeals process, should they wish to appeal through the NSW Administrative Decisions Tribunal.

Other Results that May Occur for an Online Verification of a WWC Check

The online verification process may produce the following other results:

- Application in progress

The worker has completed the application process and may begin working with children. If he or she becomes barred, the School will receive notification.

- Interim barred

Applicants subject to an Interim Bar must not engage in any child-related work while awaiting the results of their risk assessment. It is an offence to hire this person for child-related work, paid or unpaid.

- Not found

This result will display if the WWC Check number or application number that is sought to be verified cannot be found by the online system. It is an offence to hire this person for child-related work, paid or unpaid.

Refer to the guidance available on the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian website for more information about these results.

Worker Obligations

Prior to commencing work at School, workers who are required to hold a WWC Check clearance but who have not previously applied for or held a WWC Check must present their WWC Check Application Number and proof of full name and date of birth to Pacific Coast Christian School for online verification that a WWC Check application has been made.

Upon receiving clearance, or when renewing an existing WWC Check, it is compulsory that the worker provides their WWC Check number to Pacific Coast Christian School, and proof of their full name and date of birth for online verification.

Workers are responsible for applying for and renewing their own WWC Checks and notifying the Office of the Children's Guardian of changes to their personal details within three months of any change. They will receive a reminder to renew their WWC Check three months before it expires.

Pacific Coast Christian School's Obligations

The School must:

- register and maintain registration online as a child-related employer by going to the NSW Office Of the Children's Guardian website and completing the form
- before engaging a new worker, obtain and verify the worker's relevant details. The only way to verify these details is by using the online verification system
- not accept paper evidence of a WWC Check application or clearance from the worker, because they may have since been barred
- verify a worker's WWC Check within five working days after the worker's WWC Check clearance expires at the end of every five-year period
- ensure current paid workers and all volunteers apply for the new Check
- not employ, in either paid or non-paid child-related work, a person if the outcome of their online verification is:
  - barred
  - interim barred
  - not found
- remove, immediately upon being notified, any barred, interim barred or not found persons from child-related work
- maintain all records of verifications and other WWC documentation in accordance with this policy (see the Record Keeping section of this policy)
- notify the Office of the Children's Guardian if a staff member, volunteer or contractor is subject to an adverse finding in relation to an allegation of misconduct that is the subject of a Mandatory Reporting and/or a Reportable Conduct notification. This notification will trigger a risk assessment by the Children's Guardian and a review of the individual's WWC Check.

Record Keeping

Pacific Coast Christian School is required to obtain, verify and record the relevant details of all workers engaged in child-related work. Relevant details will only be correctly verified if they accord with the information relating to the worker recorded in the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian's working with children register, accessed via the online verification system, as at the date the record is made by the School.

There are two methods of keeping records of WWC Checks at Pacific Coast Christian School, one for paid staff (including contractors) and one for volunteers. These methods apply to all staff and volunteers, regardless of when they commence child-related work at the School.

1. Staff

All staff employed at Pacific Coast Christian School are required to have a WWC Check.

Prior to the commencement of any appointment, staff must provide their WWC Check Number to the School and have a WWC Check Clearance.

Procedures are outlined in the Recruitment Status Forms and the New Staff Checklists.

Using the NSW Government Office of Children's Guardian Working with Children Check employer log in, the Principal's PA is responsible for the initial verification of all staff WWC Checks. An email confirming verification is sent to the Human Resources Manager and saved digitally.

The verification will be made under the school name and there will also be a concurrent verification made under the other school located on the site.

Once verified, status reports are printed and scanned, then saved by the Principal's PA in the local staff file and saved in the Staff digital and hard copy file by Payroll and the Principal's PA on site.

In addition, the following information for each staff member is recorded electronically in a consolidated register (Staff Details Spreadsheet):

- full name
- date of birth
- verification date
- WWC Check number
- result status
- expiry date of the WWC Check
- result of the verification (full text).

The Principal's PA is initially responsible for monitoring the WWCC and will contact any staff member through email to remind staff to renew their WWCC. When the WWCC is renewed the details will be saved in the Staff Details Spreadsheet and sent to Payroll.

The Payroll Office is responsible for monitoring the WWC Check status of all staff members and keeping details up-to-date.

The School Management System generates an automated reminder driven by the expiry date of the WWCC. The automated email will be sent to the staff member and the Payroll Office 30 days before expiry.

The records must be updated no later than five working days after the expiry date of a staff member's WWC Check.

The consolidated register and the process for maintaining and monitoring it are evidence of the School's maintenance of WWC Checks.

These records are:

- located in the Staff Details Spreadsheet
- retained by the School for the duration of the staff member's employment and archived with the staff file after the staff member ceases employment at the School.

An annual Staff Details Spreadsheet is saved for each calendar year. Historical verifications (verification dates of non-current WWCCs) are available in the relevant annual Staff Details Spreadsheet and in hard copy on the individual staff member's file.

The WWCC will be maintained by the school who employs the staff member and recorded on the site based Staff Details Spreadsheet.

2. Volunteers

Prior to the commencement of any volunteer work for the School, relevant volunteers must provide their WWC Check Number to the School and have a WWC Check Clearance.

Using the NSW Office of Children's Guardian Working with Children Check employer log in, the Principal's PA is responsible for the initial verification of all volunteer WWC Checks.

Results of the verification process are recorded in the Volunteers Spreadsheet.

The Principal's PA is responsible for keeping the volunteer WWC Check information up-to-date.

The records must be updated no later than five working days after the expiry date of a volunteer's WWC Check.

These records are:

- located in the Volunteers Spreadsheet
- retained by the School for the duration of the volunteer's work with the School and for a period of seven years after the volunteer ceases to work for the School.

3. Contractors

Maintenance contractors will be overseen by the Property Manager and are not considered to have direct contact with students.

Where contractors are on the School site for an extended period of time (more than 5 days), eg. a School building project, the WWCC of each person who is on the site will be checked by the Property Manager.

4. Prac Students

Prac Students will be overseen by the Head of School.

WWCC details will be verified by the Principal's PA and recorded on the Volunteers Spreadsheet prior to acceptance.

5. Homestay Accommodation Providers (Overseas Students)

Homestay Accommodation will be overseen by the Registrar. WWCCs will be recorded in the School Management System.

Where the Homestay Provider is being paid by any organisation to provide the service they will require a paid WWCC. Where the Homestay Provider is not being paid by any organisation to provide the service they will require a Volunteer WWCC.

Privacy and Confidentiality

Disclosure of Worker Information

The following information about a worker in the register may be made available by the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian to an employer or proposed employer, upon request in the approved format:

- particulars of applications for WWC Check clearances
- WWC Check application number of any worker
- current clearance status of a child-related worker
- number, class (volunteer or non-volunteer) and expiry date of a WWC Check clearance held by a child-related worker
- whether the clearance holder is subject to an interim bar or has had a clearance cancelled.

Disclosure of Employer Information

Similarly, the following information about an employer in the register may be made publicly available by the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian:

- trading name or registered business name of the employer
- child-related work for which the employer engages a child-related worker
- postcode or name of the place in which the employer's business is located
- whether any requests for information regarding a Check status were made to the NSW Office of the Children's Guardian by the employer within a specified period.

Implementation

This policy is implemented through a combination of:

- staff training

- effective communication and incident notification procedures
- effective record keeping procedures
- initiation of corrective actions where necessary.

Discipline for Breach of Policy

Where a staff member breaches this policy, Pacific Coast Christian School may take disciplinary action, including in the case of serious breaches, summary dismissal.